WRITTEN ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Casual labourers working in the Prime Minister's office

*63. SHRI RAM PUJAN PATEL: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the number of casual labourers in the Prime Minister's Office who have been made regular during the last three years, year-wise;

(b) the number of such casual labourers who have been working for more than two years and have not been made regular and the reasons therefor;

(c) whether Government have formulated any tirne-bound programme for making them regular, if so, what are the details thereof; and

(d) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE PRIME MINISTER (SHRIMATI INDIRA GANDHI): (a) Nil.

(b) Two. They have not been made regular as they do not fulfil the conditions of eligibility fbr regular appointment.

(c) and (d) According to existing instructions, casul employees can be appointed on a regular basis against Group 'D' posts provided they satisfy certain conditions as specified in the instructions. Since such regularisation is dependent on the availability of vacancies in Group 'D' posts there cannot obviously be any tirne-bound programme for such regularisation.
